

ENRICHMENT AT TESTWOOD

Geography – Milford-on-Sea (Coasts Trip)

Year 8 Geographers visit Milford-on-Sea to observe evidence of coastal processes but also to look at human responses to these processes and different methods used to help protect the coast.

We also take a walk along Hurst Spit, a large natural landform created by longshore drift, to observe its effect on human activity and the creation of new natural landscapes.

