Notes

The above duties are subject to the general roles and responsibilities contained in the Statement of Condition of Employment.

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task undertaken may not be identified. Employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from the Headteacher or their delegated staff member to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in the job description. The school will endeavour to make any necessary reasonable adjustments to the job and the working environment to enable access to employment opportunities for disabled job applicants or continued employment for any employee who develops a disabling condition.

The job description allocated duties and responsibilities but does not direct the particular amount of time to be spent on carrying them out and no part of it may so construed. It is not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the post and will be reviewed annually. It may be subject to modification or amendment at any time after consultation with the postholder and the duties may be varied to meet the changing demands of the school at the reasonable discretion of a Headteacher.

This job description does not form part of the contract of employment. It describes the way the post holder is expected and required to perform and complete their particular duties.
